1. The Cominform meeting to which Friedl Fuernberg and Otto Horneck were invited and which was scheduled to take place in Prague on 19 August was postponed until after the release of the results achieved by an alleged special meeting of Communist trade union representatives which was called by the Cominform in Budapest in August. [REDACTED] Comment: A notice of the Prague meeting was published in paragraph 3 of [REDACTED]
2. Otto Martin Horneck, who was to accompany Fuernberg to Prague, is not identical with the Hornik of the Volksstimme. Otto Horneck is allegedly a veteran Communist who is employed by the Communist Party Central Committee. He stands in good favor with the Russians and appears to be assuming an important role in CP activities.
